

CONDITIONS OF SALE

The sale is strictly for cash in Euro to the highest bidder. Every lot offered in this catalogue are not a property of Thesaurus who sells on behalf of a third parties with a regular sale commission. Coins authenticity and defective less is guaranteed unless other wise stated.

Estimations are expressed in Euro and represent the opening prices, lower offerts will not be considered.

The buyer shall add 15% to the last realised price as a premium for the sale. All participants shall give references and will be considered accountable for bids and purchases. Participants cannot claim to be acting on behalf of a third party. Minimum increases are based at Auctioner's discretion, usually at 10%. If any dispute arises during the auction, the Auctioneer can put the lot in question up again during the same session, after the last bid. At parity of value, mail bid will be preferred to the room bid.

Successful buyer has to pay and take the lot on his own care and responsibility within 24 hours. The description of lots, their condition and rarity, are a personal opinion, in any case, the lots can be examined by customers also during the auction. No claim on multiple lots will be accepted.

Any claim will be taken in consideration only if issued within 30th day after the sale. For any accepted claim the liability is limited to the paid amount.

Auction results will be published (web site www.thesaurus.sm) four working days after the sale, participants can get information calling +378/960027. The coins not sold, to leave from the fourth day, could be acquire at the price of base more the commission to you of 10%. The demands for the participants to the auction will have the precedence. Winners will receive full documentations and the invoice by mail.

However it's bidder's responsibility to get action results for his own offers. Shipping to mail bidders will be executed only after the payment; the lots are mailed at the cost, risk and responsibility of the purchaser. For invoices not paid within 30 days, usual bank interests may be added by Thesaurus.

The buyer must know and observe applicable customs regulations. Only Italian text is trustworthy, the translation is given solely for bidders' help.

A bid to this auction implies total acceptance of these conditions.

For any dispute, the competent tribunal is San Marino Republic Court.
